Sir:

In connection with the Issue Fee mailed November 29, 2004 for the above referenced Patent Application, the undersigned attorney inadvertently paid the issue fee on the basis that applicants were entitled to a small entity fee schedule as shown on the Notice of Allowance.

The undersigned attorney has recently been reminded that Applicants are no longer entitled to the small entity status for this application.

PATENT

Pursuant to 37 CFR 1.28 (c), applicants hereby notifies the Patent Office that through error applicants paid the small entity fee for an issue fee connection with the Notice of Allowance and Fees Due mailed September 28, 2004. Applicants notified the office that small entity status was no longer applicable to this application and withdrew the previously filed claim of small entity status in a letter dated May 30, 2001.

This application was no longer entitled to claim small entity status as of May 30, 2001. Applicants' undersigned attorney has reviewed the files for this application and has determined that the only fee paid in error was the issue fee mailed November 29, 2004 in connection with the Notice of Allowance.

The current fee for a non-small entity $1370.

The fee actually paid by applicants was $685.00.

The deficiency amount is $685.00.

The total deficiency payment owed is $685.00.

The Patent Office is hereby authorized to charge the total deficiency payment of $685.00 and any additional fees or overpayments in connection with this request to deposit account 02-4377.

Pursuant to 37 CFR 1.28 (c), it is requested that the underpayment of issue fee be excused.

Respectfully submitted,

By:
